

King County

HOUSING STABILITY

Project

Are you facing...

- Eviction?
- High move-in costs?

The King County Housing Stability Project may be able to help!

For information & referrals, call:

Community Information Line

1.800.621.INFO, 206.461.3200

or 2.1.1 (from a landline)

KCHSP is a program of Building community to end poverty

To qualify for the King County Housing Stability Project (KCHSP), you must...

- Live in King County.
- Have low-to-moderate income.
- Need rental assistance for evictions or move-in costs.

Veterans' households are strongly encouraged to call.

Community Information Line

All KCHSP intake is done through the Community Information Line. To find out if you're eligible and to get referrals, please call any of the following numbers...

1.800.621.INFO, 206.461.3200
or 2.1.1 (from a landline)

This project is funded through:

- King County Veterans & Human Services Levy
- King County Consortium CDBG
- Washington State Department of Commerce
- City of Bellevue